Fair Acres Sultan, Jr. 596263

FIRST ANNUAL SALE
OF
Scotch Shorthorns

ARRANGE TO ATTEND THIS

PARIS, ILL., THURSDAY, JUNE 24, 1920

40-HEAD-40

Hand Picked Cattle. Every One a Good and Fashionably Bred Animal

WILL STEWART, Proprietor

Interesting talks will be given by J. L. Tormey of American Shorthorn Breeders' Association; Reid Carpenter, of the firm of Carpenter & Ross, Mansfield, Ohio; and Chas. Adkins, Secretary of Agriculture, Springfield, Illinois.

Announcement

This certainly is the one event of my life to which I have looked forward with a great deal of pride, when I could offer to the public the quality and breeding of the Shorthorn cattle which I am offering at this sale. Having been breeding Shorthorn cattle for twenty years in a modest way, always with greater ambition to make them better and breed the best, hence the purchase of Fair Acres Sultan Jr., one of the sensational bulls of 1919. I am selling about 20 heifers bred to this great sire, which from a monetary standpoint will be my loss but the purchaser's gain.

These cattle represent every popular bloodlines which are being bred, and I hope those who attend this sale will be repaid whether they buy or not. Come and be my guest.

WILL STEWART.

GUARANTEE

I guarantee every animal of breeding age a breeder. Cows well along in calf, or with calves at foot, show evidence of breeding and no other guarantee is given. But if they do not after a reasonable period they can be returned in as good shape as when purchased and another animal of equal value will be given in exchange, purchaser paying exchange charges, or will give a four months' trial to my own bull, American Shorthorn rules to govern.

June 23 the Etherly Stock Farms at Galesburg sell, and for convenience of parties wishing to attend my sale will have Pullman waiting to bring parties to Paris, where breakfast will be served to all. Make your reservations early by writing Will Stewart or making arrangements with man who will be at sale.

Paris is located on main line Big 4, Indianapolis and St. Louis division; also on Chicago and Cairo division of Big 4; Terre Haute and Peoria division of Vandalia Line. Also points east, traction system.

Thursday, June 24, 1920. Sale commences 12 M. sharp.

AUCTIONEERS:

Colonels Carey M. Jones, Ed Haniff, Tom Martin, H. L. Burgess, Boyer and Blackman, Herbert Henn and Buck Wright and Kegley.

FAIR ACRES SULTAN, JR., is so well known to Shorthorn breeders and readers that further comment seems utterly needless. He was first prize junior bull calf and head of first prize calf herd at the 1917 International, and in 1918 he headed the first prize Young herd at the Royal and was one of the three bulls that won the Argentine trophy at the International, and he topped the sale that produced the greatest average ever made on Scotch Shorthorns in America, and only one of his heifers has ever been sold at auction. She topped the sale of heifers at the Lookabaugh sale, when she sold for $2,400 and a heifer in the sale sold for $5,000 with a white heifer calf at foot by Fair Acres Sultan Jr. Fair Acres Sultan Jr. is now three years old. Purchased by Carpenter and Ross, Mansfield, Ohio. He promised to make a great bull. He is fulfilling that promise. I liked him as a calf and as a yearling; I like him better as a three year old. He has developed no weakness, he is still smooth and straight and he is well proportioned in every feature. Heifers carrying his service should command long prices, and Will Stewart realizes that none but females of unusual quality and of uniformly desirable types should be bred to such a bull. To secure this kind he has visited many herds and has topped numerous sales. As a result, he has brought together thirty-eight females that, for evenness of type, superior quality and strength of pedigree, would be hard to equal, and most of them are already bred to this great sire, Fair Acres Sultan Jr. Those recently bred will be held at the farm after the sale until it is assured they are in calf. A few, too young to breed, may be left by the purchaser until settled to his service; thus it is seen that a great opportunity is presented to secure the service of this great sire. Every great herd should have some of his blood. This sale offers a sure chance to procure it.

WILL JOHNSON, Shorthorn World

All foot notes written by WILL JOHNSON, of Shorthorn World

I BELIEVE the importance of Fair Acres Sultan Jr. will be realized in a far greater degree than at present when his powerful siring ability is made known to the breeding fraternity. Majestic on his pedestal of show ring victories he stands, requiring no further testimonial as to his individuality. Supreme in past history of popularity, he is known today as the top son of Fair Acres Sultan and top of the Lookabaugh Sale in 1919.

The final requisite, then, is his ability as a sire. Let it then be known that one of his calves selling with dam at Salter's sale went to Carpenter & Ross at $5,000.00, Salter buying her the year before carrying this service of Fair Acres Sultan Jr. for the price of $2,000.00. Other calves are coming on showing remarkable individuality.

The selection of females Will Stewart has made to mate with Fair Acres Sultan Jr. are outstanding in every respect. They are such as to make certain in the mating with this great bull of an ultra-superior get. I believe few better conditioned cattle have been offered. If care and feed is of the value that we all believe it to be, then these cattle are enhanced in value 100% by being in the hands of Will Stewart, for truly they are in supreme condition.

You will look forward with pleasure to the Fair Acres Sultan sale, and I sincerely believe you will not be disappointed in this event of June 24 at Paris.

L. A. WILLIAMS

Of the Shorthorn World.

IT IS a pleasure and a satisfaction to recommend to the Shorthorn fraternity, and to those who are wanting high class breeding cattle, the great consignment herein listed by Will Stewart, featuring the service of his truly outstanding herd sire, FAIR ACRES SULTAN JR.

The forty-four females in the sale are types that have been selected with but one point in view, that of constructive breeding, and to produce Shorthorns from the progeny of these matings that will for years be cattle that stand out as STEWART bred Shorthorns.

This sale will be an opportunity to secure the blood of a sire from which one can reasonably expect a really great future.

The females have been selected for a certain type, regardless of the price commanded, as the tops of many auctions will be found in this sale carrying the services of FAIR ACRES SULTAN JR.

The lines of breeding offered represent the tribes that are in greatest demand by painstaking breeders at the present time.

This consignment should and will be one of the season's most select offerings. I would urge you to be present and at least secure one female bred to this truly great bull.

(Signed) MAURICE WINN.

What the Service of a Great Bull Means

By way of illustration, we can cite a case that indicates the wisdom of the policy of buying good females carrying the service of a fitting sire.

May 14, 1919, Park E. Salter bought a heifer in the Lookabaugh sale known as Miss Snowbird Sultan, safe in calf to Fair Acres Sultan Jr., for which he paid $2,000. True she was a good heifer, with much dependable blood behind her, though unproven as a producer. In due time she dropped a white heifer calf from this union, a calf of the character that measured up to the individuality of the dam, but represented the one evidence that added much to her value.

May 15, 1920, this cow and calf went through the Salter sale at Wichita, going to Carpenter & Ross at $5,000, and it was the opinion of many good judges that it was not expecting too much to anticipate that some day this calf would be worth as much as her mother.

Such experiences, which happen every day in more or less degree in Shorthorn affairs, only go to emphasize the value of a service from a really superior bull, and it may suggest itself to some who attend this sale that proportionately satisfactory results can be had from the good heifers in this auction that carry the service of Fair Acres Sultan Jr. His calves, wherever they have appeared, are highly prized. One of them, as here shown, was instrumental in adding $3,000 to the value of Miss Snowbird Sultan. They are sure to be good property.

H. F. BURGESS.

IN HIS forthcoming sale Will Stewart will sell one of the most valuable consignments of richly bred Shorthorns that has passed through an auction ring in some time. The forty bred heifers are an outstanding lot, so far as individual merit is concerned, and a perusal of the catalog will result in the critical breeder's approval of the blood lines contained therein. Daughters of many of the breed's most noted present day sires are included. The leading feature of this event is the twenty some heifers in calf to Fair Acres Sultan Jr., one of the greatest prize-winning bulls of his age in America, and for which Mr. Stewart paid $17,250.00 at the Lookabaugh sale last year. This great young bull is sired by Fair Acres Sultan by Whitehall Sultan, and his dam is by Double Dale, a double bred Avondale. Thus it will be seen that Fair Acres Sultan Jr. traces to Whitehall Sultan three times, an intensification of the blood, the influence of which has played an important part in the improvement of America's Shorthorns during the past decade. Every one who attends this sale will be highly pleased with this decidedly attractive offering, and excellent results in the breeding lot may be expected from the purchases made at this sale.

Glenarra Avalanche is by that good son of Avondale Dale's Farewell. This bull's females have been selling very high in Indiana as they have the reputation of developing into great brood cows. We think so much of this heifer and her pedigree that we want her left on the place until safely settled with calf to our great Fair Acres Sultan Jr.

The white January yearling, Sterling Silver, is not only a very short-legged, blocky type, but he has unusual scale as well. He closely resembles his great sire, imp. Bold Major, and his dam is a grand daughter of Fond Memory. This bull is bound to excel as a sire and he will be a winner if shown this year. He has wonderful fleshing qualities and has character indicating prepotency.
